Greater Greenville Sanitation District (GGSD) Community Stewardship Award GGSD recognizes a demonstrated commitment to our environment and local community

APRIL 26, 2017 - GREENVILLE, SC - The GGSD STEWARDSHIP AWARD recognizes individuals, communities, businesses and non-profit organizations in the GGSD Service District that provide leadership in environmental protection and practice in the areas of waste reduction, recycling, and litter prevention.

In, 2016 GGSD recognized Terry Turner as the recipient of this award.

Terry is the President of Welcome, Tanglewood and Carolina Crime Watch-Community Action. “Terry and her team have done an outstanding job of bringing these communities together around common issues and concerns, especially those related to the White Horse road corridor. In addition, her efforts to engage local schools such as environmental studies and journalism students at Carolina high, to help raise awareness about waste minimization, and her resource conservation is an exemplary example of community activism and volunteerism,” said Chuck LaGrange, GGSD Public Information Officer.

The award, which also included a community clean-up kit valued at $500, was presented by Chuck LaGrange and District 25 Councilman Dr. Ennis Fant.
